
O Thou who didst send the Lord Jesus for the gain of the whole world, and who through Him didst choose the apostles; who from generation to generation dost ordain holy bishops;

O God of truth, make this man also a holy bishop of the succession of the holy apostles;and give unto him grace and divine Spirit, which Thou didst give to all Thine own servants and prophets and patriarchs; make him to be worthy to shepherd Thy flock, and let him ever continue blameless and unoffending in the episcopate;

Through thine only-begotten Jesus Christ, through whom to Thee be glory and might in the Holy Ghost, both now and world without end.

AMEN

THE ORDER OF SERVICE

HYMN: Praise to the Lord -Lobe den Herren

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of Creation;
O my soul, praise him, for he is thy health and salvation:
All ye who hear
Now to his temple draw near,
Joining in glad adoration.

Praise to the Lord, who o'er all things
so wondrously reigneth,
Shelters thee under his wings, yea, so gently sustaineth:
Hast thou not seen
How thy entreaties have been Granted in what he ordaineth.

Praise to the Lord, who doth prosper
thy work, and defend thee;
Surely his goodness and mercy here
daily attend thee:
Ponder anew
What the Almighty can do,
If with his love he befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord, who, when tempests
their warfare are waging,
Who, when the elements madly around thee are raging,
Biddeth them cease,
Turneth their fury to peace,
Whirlwinds and waters assuaging.

Praise to the Lord, who, when darkness
of sin is abounding,
Who, when the godless do triumph, all
virtue confounding,
Sheddeth his light,
Chaseth the horrors of night,
Saints with his mercy surrounding.

Praise to the Lord! O let all that is in me adore him!
All that hath life and breath come now
with praises before him!
Let the Amen
Sound from his people again:
Gladly for aye we adore him.

INTROIT: O Clap your hands -Ralph Vaughan Williams

Archbishop: Blessed be God:Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People: And blessed be his kingdom, now and forever. Amen.

Archbishop: Almighty God,
All: To whom all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from whom no secrets are hid:
Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy name;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Archbishop: Let us pray

The community may pray silently for a while.
The Archbishop sings or says the collect.

O God of unchangeable power and eternal light:Look favourably on your whole church, that wonderful and sacred mystery; by the effectual working of your providence, carry out in tranquillity the plan of salvation; let the whole world see and know that things which were cast down are being raised up, and all things which had grown old are being made new, and that all is being brought to perfection by him through whom all things were made, your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

People: Amen.

Dans ta sagesse admirable, Seigneur, tu assignes leurs fonctions aux anges et aux hommes; fais que nous soyons protégés sur cette terre par ceux qui, dans le ciel, servent toujour devant ta face. Par Jésus Christ, notre Seigneur, qui vit et règne avec toi et le Saint Esprit, un seul Dieu, pour les siècles des siècles.

THE GRADUAL HYMN: Who would true valour see
-Monk's Gate

Who would true valour see,
Let him come hither;
Here's one will constant be
Come wind, come weather.
There's no discouragement
Shall make him once relent
His first avowed intent
To be a pilgrim.

Whoso beset him round
With dismal stories
Do but themselves confound:
His strength the more is.
No lion can him fright,
He'll with a giant fight,
But he will have the right
To be a pilgrim.

Since, Lord, thou dost defend
Him with thy Spirit,
He knows he at the end
Shall life inherit.
Then fancies flee away,
I'll fear not what men say,
But labour night and day
To be a pilgrim.

Deacon: The Lord be with you.

People: And with thy spirit.

Deacon: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. John.

All: Glory be to thee, O Lord.

The Holy Gospel: John 20: 19 - 23
Proclaimed by The Reverend Les Cavalier

Deacon: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise be to thee, O Christ.

THE SERMON: The Most Reverend Edward Scott, Primate of All Canada.

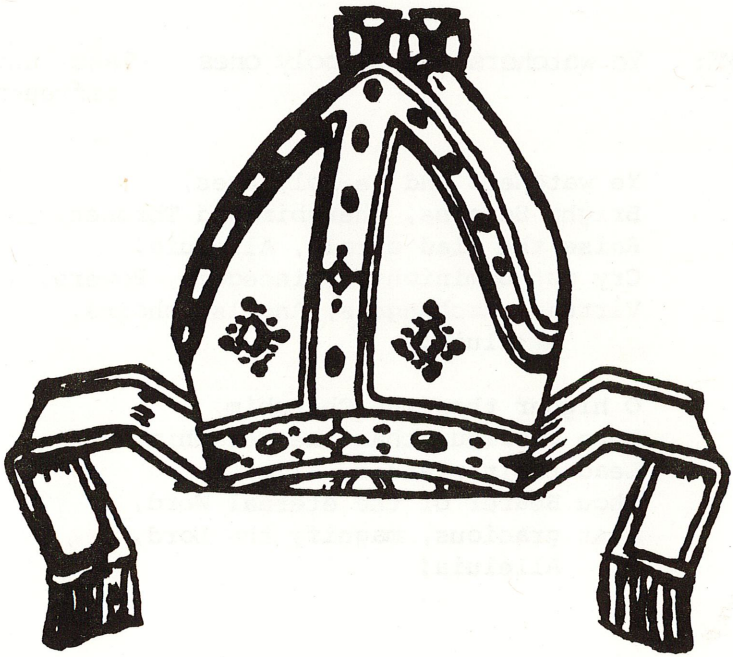
HYMN: Ye watchers and ye holy ones -Lasst uns erfreuen

Ye watchers and ye holy ones,
Bright Seraphs, Cherubim and Thrones,
Raise the glad strain, Alleluia!
Cry out Dominions, Princedoms, Powers,
Virtues, Archangels, Angels' choirs,
Alleluia!

O higher than the Cherubim,
More glorious than the Seraphim,
Lead their praises, Alleluia!
Thou Bearer of the eternal Word,
Most gracious, magnify the Lord,
Alleluia!

Respond, ye souls in endless rest,
Ye patriarchs and prophets blest,
Alleluia, Alleluia!
Ye holy Twelve, ye Martyrs strong,
All Saints triumphant, raise the song
Alleluia!

O friends, in gladness let us sing,
Supernal anthems echoing,
Alleluia, Alleluia!
To God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, Three in One,
Alleluia!



THE PRESENTATION

When all have taken their places, representatives of the diocese, the province, and others come with the bishop elect to stand before the Metropolitan.

The Presenters:

Lewis, bishop in the church of God, the clergy and people of the diocese of Ottawa, trusting in the guidance of the Holy Spirit, have chosen Edwin Lackey to be a bishop and chief pastor. We therefore ask you to lay your hands upon him and in the power of the Holy Spirit to consecrate him a bishop in the one, holy, catholic, and apostolic church.

The Clerical Secretary of Synod reads the extract from the minutes of the electoral synod, giving proof of election.

The Registrar of the Diocese reads the certificate of confirmation of election.

The Chancellor reads the consecration document.

The Archbishop then requires the following promise from the Bishop Elect.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, I Edwin Lackey, chosen bishop of the church and see of Ottawa, solemnly declare that I do believe the holy scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the word of God, and to contain all things necessary to salvation; I do solemnly promise to conform to the doctrine, discipline, and worship of the Anglican Church of Canada; and I do pledge myself to render due obedience to the Metropolitan of Ontario and to his successors. So help me God, through Jesus Christ.

The bishop elect then signs the above declaration in the sight of all present. The witnesses add their signatures.

All stand.

The Archbishop:

Brothers and sisters in Christ Jesus, you have heard testimony given that Edwin Lackey has been duly and lawfully elected to be a bishop of the church of God to serve in the Diocese of Ottawa. You have been assured of his suitability and that the church has approved him for this sacred responsibility. Nevertheless, if any of you know any reason why we should not proceed, let it now be made known.

If there is no objection, the Archbishop continues.

Is it your will that we ordain Edwin a bishop?

The people respond: That is our will.

The Archbishop: Will you uphold Edwin as a bishop?

The People: We will.

THE EXAMINATION

All now sit, except the bishop elect who stands facing the bishops.

The Archbishop:

Edwin, the people have chosen you and have affirmed their trust in you by acclaiming your election. A bishop in God's holy church is called to be one with the apostles in proclaiming Christ's resurrection and interpreting the Gospel, and to testify to Christ's sovereignty as Lord of lords and King of kings.

You are called to guard the faith, unity and discipline of the church; to celebrate and provide for the administration of the sacraments of the new covenant; to ordain priests and deacons and to join in ordaining bishops; and to be in all things a faithful pastor and wholesome example for the entire flock of Christ.

With your fellow bishops you will share in the leadership of the church throughout the world. Your heritage is the faith of patriarchs, prophets apostles and martyrs, and those of every generation who have looked to God in hope. Your joy will be to follow him who came, not to be served, but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many.

Are you persuaded that God has called you to the office of bishop?

Answer: I am so persuaded.

The bishops then address the following questions to the bishop elect.

Bishop: Will you accept this call and fulfill this trust in obedience to Christ?

Answer: I will obey Christ, and will serve in his name.

Bishop: Will you be faithful in prayer, and in the study of holy scripture, that you may have the mind of Christ?

Answer: I will, for he is my help.

Bishop: Will you boldly proclaim and interpret the Gospel of Christ, enlightening the minds and stirring up the conscience of your people?

Answer: I will, in the power of the Spirit.

Bishop: As a chief priest and pastor, will you encourage all baptized people in their gifts and ministries, nourish them from the riches of God's grace, pray for them without ceasing, and celebrate with them the sacraments of redemption?

Answer: I will, in the name of Christ, the shepherd and bishop of our souls.

Bishop: Will you guard the faith, unity and discipline of the church?

Answer: I will, for the love of God.

Bishop: Will you share with your fellow bishops in the government of the whole church; will you sustain your fellow presbyters and take counsel with them; will you guide and strengthen the deacons and all others who minister in the church?

Answer: I will, by the grace given me.

Bishop: Will you be merciful to all, show compassion to the poor and strangers, and defend those who have no helper?

Answer: I will, for the sake of Christ Jesus.

All stand. The Archbishop says;

Edwin, through these promises you have committed yourself to God, to serve his church in the office of bishop. We therefore call upon you, chosen to be a guardian of the church's faith, to lead us in confessing that faith.

THE NICENE CREED

The Bishop elect: We believe in one God,

All: the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father.
With the Father and the Son
he is worshipped and glorified.
He has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church.

We acknowledge one baptism
for the forgiveness of sins.
we look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE CONSECRATION OF THE BISHOP

All remain standing except the bishop elect who kneels before the Metropolitan. The other bishops stand to the right and left of the archbishop.

The Archbishop:

The scriptures tell us that our Saviour Christ spent the whole night in prayer before he chose and sent forth his twelve apostles. Likewise, the apostles prayed before they appointed Matthias to be one of their number. Let us, therefore, follow their example and offer our prayers to Almighty God before we ordain Edwin for the work to which we trust the Holy Spirit has called him.

THE LITANY FOR ORDINATIONS

God the Father
Have mercy on us.

God the Son,
Have mercy on us.

God the Holy Spirit,
Have mercy on us.

Holy Trinity, one God,
Have mercy on us.

We pray to you, Lord Christ,

For the holy church of God, that it may be filled with truth and love, and be found without fault at the day of your coming, we pray to you, O Lord,
Lord hear our prayer.

For all members of your church in their vocation and ministry, that they may serve you in true and godly living, we pray to you, O Lord,

Lord, hear our prayer.

For Edwin, chosen bishop in your church, we pray to you, O Lord,
Lord, hear our prayer.

That he may faithfully fulfill the duties of this ministry, build up your church and glorify you name, we pray to you, O Lord,
Lord, hear our prayer.

That by the indwelling of the Holy Spirit he may be sustained and encouraged to persevere to the end, we pray to you, O Lord.
Lord, hear our prayer

For all who fear God and believe in you, Lord Christ, that our divisions may cease and that all may be one as you and the Father are one, we pray to you, O Lord,
Lord, hear our prayer.

For the mission of the church, that in faithful witness it may preach the gospel to the ends of the earth, we pray to you O Lord,
Lord, hear our prayer.

For those who do not yet believe, and for those who have lost their faith, that they may receive the light of the gospel, we pray to you, O Lord,
Lord, hear our prayer.

For ourselves; for the forgiveness of our sins and for the grace of the Holy Spirit to amend our lives, we pray to you, O Lord,
Lord, hear our prayer.

For all who have died in the communion of the church, and for those whose faith is known to you alone, that, with all the saints, they may have rest in that place where there is no pain or grief, but life eternal; we pray to you, O Lord,
Lord, hear our prayer.

Rejoicing in the fellowship of the ever-blessed Virgin Mary, blessed Michael, the archangel and all the saints, let us commend ourselves, and one another, and all our life to Christ our God.
To you, O Lord our God.

The Archbishop:

Almighty and eternal God, ruler of all things in heaven and earth: Mercifully accept the prayers of your people, and strengthen us to do your will; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

Silence is kept for a while.

HYMN: Come Holy Ghost -Veni Creator

Come Holy Ghost, our souls inspire
And lighten with celestial fire,
Thou the anointing Spirit art,
Who dost thy sevenfold gifts impart.

Thy blessed unction from above
Is comfort, life, and fire of love;
Enable with perpetual light
The dullness of our blinded sight;

Anoint and cheer our soiled face
With the abundance of thy grace;
Keep far our foes; give peace at home;
Where thou art guide no ill can come.

Teach us to know the Father, Son,
And thee of both to be but one,
That through the ages all along
This may be our endless song:
Praise to thy eternal merit,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Amen.

Silence is kept. Then the Archbishop stretching his hands over the bishop elect begins the prayer of consecration.

We praise and glorify you, Almighty Father because you have formed throughout the world a holy people for your own possession, a royal priesthood, a universal church.

We praise and glorify you because you have given us your only Son Jesus Christ to be the Apostle and High Priest of our faith and the Shepherd of our souls.

We praise and glorify you that by his death he has overcome death; and that, having ascended into heaven, he has given his gifts abundantly to your people, making some, apostles, some prophets, some evangelists; some pastors and teachers; to equip them for the work of the ministry and to build up his body.

And now we give you thanks that you have called this your servant to share this ministry entrusted to your church.

The Bishops lay their hands on the head of the bishop elect.

Send down your Holy Spirit upon your servant Edwin, whom we consecrate in your name to the office and work of a bishop in the church.

The Archbishop continues with hands extended.

Almighty Father, fill this your servant with the grace and power which you gave to your apostles, that he may lead those committed to his charge in proclaiming the gospel of salvation. Through him, increase your church, renew its ministry, and unite its members in a holy fellowship of truth and love. Enable him as a true shepherd to feed and govern your flock; make him wise as a teacher, and steadfast as a guardian of its faith and sacraments. Guide and direct him in presiding at the worship of your people. Give him humility, that he may use authority to heal, not to hurt, to build, not to destroy. Defend him from all evil, that as a ruler over your household and an ambassador for Christ he may stand before you blameless, and finally with all your servants, enter your eternal joy.

Accept our prayers, most merciful Father, through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, belong glory and honour, worhsip and praise, now and for ever.

The people in a loud voice respond.

People: Amen.

The new bishop is now vested in alb girdle and stole. Then, once more kneeling before the Archbishop he is presented with The Bible by The Venerable J.G. Bovington and Miss Beryl Morris.

The Archbishop:

Receive the Holy Scriptures. Feed the flock of Christ committed to your charge, guard and defend them in his truth, and be a faithful steward of his holy word and sacraments.

The new bishop stands. Mr. Elmer Lackey and Mr. Malcolm Doak place the ring upon his hand saying;

Let this ring be to you a sign of the marriage between Christ and His Church.

Ann Cartier and Lt. Colonel R. V. Inman place the pectoral cross around his neck, saying;

May this emblem of our redemption rest always upon your heart, and speak to you of gain through loss, of triumph through suffering, of life through death; and may the love of the crucified uphold you.

The Venerable P. Coffin and The Rev. J.C. Cairns vest the bishop in cope and mitre.

May you be enlivened by the Holy Spirit and clothed with righteousness, that all your days you may walk where our Lord, Jesus Christ shall lead.

The Rt. Rev. Wm. Robinson, delivering a pastoral staff into the hands of the new bishop says;

Be to the flock of Christ a Shepherd; feed them and care for them. Hold up the weak, heal the sick, bind up the broken; bring in the outcast and seek the lost. In ministering the discipline of the Church show also the mercy of God. Do all these things through Jesus Christ our Lord, that when the Chief Shepherd shall appear, you may receive the unfading crown of glory.

The Metropolitan, taking the new bishop by the right hand presents him to the assembly saying;

The Archbishop;

I present to you our brother; chosen by you, and now ordained and consecrated a Bishop in the Church of God.

Applause - A Fanfare of trumpets will lead into the hymn, which is sung in the language of your choice.

All; Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen.

ou

La grâce de notre Sauveur, l'amour du Père et sa faveur, et l'onction du Saint-Esprit soient avec nous par Jésus-Christ. Amen.

The new bishop, extending his hands in greeting addresses the people saying;

The New Bishop;

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People;

And also with you.

The members of the community, clergy and people, may greet one another in the name of the Lord.

The liturgy continues with the offertory. The new bishop joins with the other bishops present as a concelebrant of the Eucharist. During the hymn, the deacons prepare the altar and present the gifts.

HYMN: Christ is made the sure foundation

-Westminster Abbey.

Christ is made the sure foundation,
Christ the head and corner-stone,
Chosen of the Lord, and precious,
Binding all the Church in one;
Holy Sion's help for ever,
And her confidence alone.

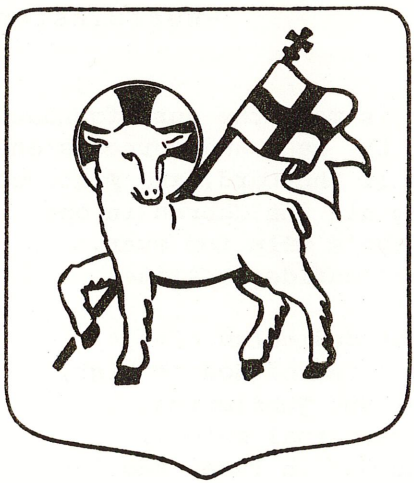
All that dedicated city
Dearly loved of God on high,
In exultant jubilation
Pours perpetual melody,
God the One in Three adoring
In glad hymns eternally.

To this temple, where we call thee,
Come, O Lord of hosts, today;
With thy wonted loving-kindness
Hear thy servants as they pray;
And thy fullest benediction
Shed within its walls alway.

LITURGICAL CHOIR ONLY

Here vouchsafe to all thy servants
What they ask of thee to gain,
What they gain from thee for ever
With the blessed to retain,
And hereafter in thy glory
Evermore with thee to reign.

Laud and honour to the Father,
Laud and honour to the Son,
Laud and honour to the Spirit,
Ever Three, and ever One;
Consubstantial, co-eternal,
While unending ages run.



THE EUCHARIST

The Archbishop: The Lord be with you.
People: And with thy spirit.
The Archbishop: Lift up your hearts.
People: We lift them up to the Lord.
The Archbishop: Let us give thanks unto the Lord, our God.
People: It is meet and right so to do.

The Archbishop: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who came not to be served, but to serve and to give his life a ransom for many. He calls his faithful servants to lead your holy people in love, nourishing them by your word and sacraments. Now with all creation we raise our voices to proclaim the glory of your name.

People: Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Glory be to thee, O Lord most high.
Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

The Archbishop:

We acclaim you, holy Lord, glorious in power;
your mighty works reveal your wisdom and love.
You formed us in your own image, giving the whole world into our care, so that in obedience to you, our Creator, we might rule and serve all your creatures.
When our disobedience took us far from you, you did not abandon us to the power of death.
In your mercy you came to our help, so that in seeking you we might find you.
Again and again you called us into covenant with you, and through the prophets you taught us to hope for salvation.
Father, you loved the world so much that in the fullness of time you sent your only Son to be our saviour.
Incarnate by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, he lived as one of us, yet without sin.
To the poor he proclaimed the good news of salvation; to prisoners, freedom; to the sorrowful, joy.
To fulfill your purpose he gave himself up to death; And, rising from the grave destroyed death and made the whole creation new.
And that we might live no longer for ourselves, but for him who died and rose for us, he sent the Holy Spirit, his own first gift for those who believe, to complete his work in the world, and to bring to fulfillment the sanctification of all.

When the hour had come for him to be glorified by you his heavenly Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end: at supper with them he took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: this is my body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Father,
we now celebrate the memorial of our redemption, recalling Christ's death and descent among the dead, proclaiming his resurrection and ascension to your right hand, awaiting his coming in glory; and offering you, from the gifts you have given us, this bread and this cup, we praise you and we bless you.

All: We praise you, we bless you, we give thanks and we pray to you, Lord our God.

The Archbishop:

Father, we pray that in your goodness and mercy your Holy Spirit may descend upon us, and upon these gifts, sanctifying them and showing them to be holy gifts for your people, the bread of life and the cup of salvation, the body and blood of your Son Jesus Christ. Grant that all who share this bread and this cup may become one body and one spirit, a living sacrifice in Christ to the praise of your name.

Remember, Lord, your one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church, redeemed by the blood of your Christ. Reveal its unity, guard its faith, and preserve it in peace. Remember Edward our Primate, William our Bishop and Edwin our Co-adjutor Bishop and all who minister in your Church. Remember all your people and those who seek your truth.
Remember all who have died in the peace of Christ, and those whose faith is known to you alone; bring them into the place of eternal joy and light.
Grant that we may find our inheritance with the blessed Virgin Mary, with Patriarchs, Prophets, Apostles and Martyrs, with blessed Michael the Archangel, and all the saints who have found favour with you in ages past.

We praise you in union with them and give you glory through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Through Christ, and with Christ and in Christ, all honour and glory are yours, almighty God and Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever.

All: Amen.

Silence is kept for a while

The Archbiship: As our Saviour Christ has commanded and taught us, we are bold to say:

All: Our Father, who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation ,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated bread for distribution, saying:

The Archbishop: Creator of all,
you gave us golden fields of wheat, whose many grains we have gathered and made into this one bread.

All: So may your Church be gathered from the ends of the earth into your kingdom.

The Celebrant invites the people to share in communion:

The Archbishop: The gifts of God for the people of God.

Those who are administering the sacrament now proceed to the communion stations which are located at the exits in the outer concourse. Members of the congregation who wish to receive communion are asked to proceed quickly and quietly following the directions of the marshals to their communion stations.

During the administration of communion the Liturgical choir will sing:

Agnus Dei in the Phygian Mode -Charles Wood

Ave Verum -William Byrd

O Lord, increase my faith -Orlando Gibbons

Thou wilt keep him -S. S. Wesley

O taste and see -Ralph Vaughan Williams

Let all mortal flesh -Arr. Gustav Holst

The hosts of God in conquering ranks combine.

refrain

Each new-born soldier of the Crucified
Bears on his brow the seal of him who died.

refrain

O Lord, once lifted on the glorious tree,
As Thou hast promised, draw all men to thee.

refrain

From farthest regions let them homage bring,
And on his Cross adore their Saviour King.

refrain

Set up thy throne, that earth's despair may cease.
Beneath the shadow of its healing peace.

refrain

For thy blest Cross which doth for all atone, Creation's praises rise before thy throne.

refrain

This is the sign which Satan's legions fear,
And angels veil their faces to revere.

refrain

So shall our song of triumph ever be
Praise to the Crucified for victory.

Lift high the Cross, the love of Christ proclaim.
Till all the world adore his sacred name.
